Then he will pass several days in conference with friends, and hopes to begin his stumping tour by the latter part of this week or the first of next. He will cover the larly one gentleman whose name he de-clines to disclose but who sent the Schenectady Mayor a message to the effect that he would not let Lunn have a vote in his town.

"Wait until I get done with that boss and see whether I get any votes," said Mayor Lunn. "The attempt of the Democratic convention to differentiate between 'designations' and 'suggestions' was a mere camouslage. There is no provision in Campaign Broadened in Hope the law for a 'suggested' ticket."

The 'scuttle of suds' plank of the Democratic platform, declared Mr. Lunn, holds out very little interest in comparison with the League of Na-tions. Besides, he holds the view that the prohibition question is settled already, and that promises to change conditions are futile. Concerning the league, he said: "If elected, I will do Likewise, George Henry Payne, who is fighting Senator James W. Wadsworth, the Republican designee for the Senatorial nomination, announced yesterday new plans and support in his campaign. According to Mr. Payne's headquarters, his candidacy has re-ceived the indorsement of F. L. Kram-lich, general chairman of the Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen of America, consisting of employees of the New York Central Rues east of Buffalo, and Timothy Healy, international president of the International Brotherhood of Firemen and Oilers.
